

(Herald Photo)

REVELING IN MEMORIES . . . were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Graham, 619 Cota Ave., who celebrated their 60th anniversary on Sept. 11. The little silver slipper pin cushion was not a wedding present, but a gift Mr. Graham brought to Mrs. Graham from the Chicago World's Fair in 1893. An open house on Sunday afternoon honored the couple.

Sixty Years of Married Life For Mr. and Mrs. Graham

Their daughter, Mrs. A. R. Motter of Orange, was here, and their only son, J. L. Graham of Macomb, Ill., arrived by plane Saturday evening, to make the day complete for Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Graham of 619 Cota Ave., who were observing their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Sept. 11.

Neighbors turned out during the afternoon to attend an open house honoring the couple. Their daughter was hostess for the affair, when refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated table. Mrs. Graham wore a corsage. Several friends from neighboring towns also came to offer felicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham were married Sept. 11, 1895, in Macomb, Ill. They were farmers in Macomb and in Canada, and came to California seven years ago. Mrs. Graham is 78 years young and Mr. Graham has passed the 71st milestone.

Others here for the party were their two granddaughters, Mrs. H. E. Smith of San Diego, and Mrs. Lyle McNeil of Macomb, and grandson, Jim Motter of Orange, and a great granddaughter, Sandra Chisholm.

(Herald Photo)

PRESENTING THE CHECK . . . for $25 from the Seaside Hi-Liter Club is Mrs. Thelma Ledwige, president, who compliments Mrs. J. W. Morrison, 5256 Bindewald, for the improvement made in her yard from June 10 to Aug. 31. The club sponsored the contest for community betterment. Judging for the club was done by D. W. Clemmer and J. W. Loughbridge of the Torrance Park Department.

Seaside Yard Contest Is Won By Mr., Mrs. J. W. Morrison

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrison, 5256 Bindewald, were selected as winners in the recent yard improvement contest conducted by the Seaside Hi-Liter Club. The contest began June 10 and ended Aug. 31.

Judges for the contest were C. W. Clemmer and J. W. Loughbridge of the Torrance Park Department. Surveys of all yards were made at the beginning of the contest and again at the close of the contest and the prize, a $25 check, was awarded for the yard which had been most improved during the period of time.

The check was presented to the winners by Mrs. Thelma Ledwige, president of the Seaside Hi-Liter Club.

ANNIVERSARY MARKED BY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Klug, 5708 Palos Verdes Blvd., celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary with a trip to Sequoia National Park on Sept. 3-4. In the evening around the campfire, community singing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Klug were introduced and in commemoration of their anniversary the group sang, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

The program then included a satire on Carmen by park employees and a talk on National Parks by a ranger.

Stork Party For Mrs. Cope

Mrs. Charles Fields of 1220 Cota Ave., was hostess Monday evening at a stork shower honoring Mrs. Charles Cope.

A color scheme of pink and blue was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Winners of several games played were Sue Mims, Claudette Moore, Delores Lee and Jeanie Hussey.

Many attractive gifts were presented to the honoree in a decorated bassinnet.

A blue decorated cake inscribed with the name of the honored guest was served with punch and favors were miniature diapers filled with assorted candy.

Those present at the affair were Billie Griffin, Bennie Stitz, Mrs. William Kirkwood, Sue Mims, Mrs. Betty Hughes, Alice Olson, Jeanne Woodall, Claudette Moore, Mrs. Myrna Jacobson, Jeanie Hussey, Delores Lee and Donna Ballmaster.

DINNER HONORS SIX CELEBRANTS

Six birthdays in the Sprout family were celebrated at a dinner party given last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Russell, 4427 Greenmeadow.

Those who were celebrating birthdays in September and for whom the party was given were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Sprout, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sprout, Mrs. Ralph Sprout and Sally Sprout.

Dinner was served from a buffet table decorated with seasonal flowers.

Others attending besides the honor guests were: Mrs. Anna Baker, Gary and Tommy Russell, Ralph Sprout, Peggy, Jeannie, Linda, Cathy and Gerri Sprout; Mrs. Anna Capo, Mrs. Miriam Barcroft, Billie and Leslie Ann Barcroft, Richard and Judy Hammock.

AT WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. John Klug, 5708 Palos Verdes Blvd., attended the wedding of Mariann Jones of San Diego and William Sevier of National City in San Diego, on Sept. 10.

Party Honors Patricia

Patricia McVey, who was celebrating her fifth birthday on Saturday, Sept. 3, was the honoree at a delightful party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McVey at their home 920 Kornblum.

After the young guests had arrived they were taken to Redondo where they enjoyed a boat cruise. They returned to the McVey home where games were played and the birthday cake was served with other refreshments.

Helping Patricia celebrate were: Susan Claessas, Susan Slocum, Colleen O'Hara, Tamara Houston, Phyllis Tatum, Margo Melville, Nancy Heath and Patricia's sister, Karen.

SPEND VACATIONS AT MORRO BAY

Morro Bay attracted several Torrance residents for vacations during the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears took a cottage there on Aug. 26 and had as their guests for the first week end, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitsy, who came home on the Santa Barbara. The Sears also entertained guests from other cities while at the resort. The vacationists arrived home last Tuesday.

On the Labor Day week end Mr. and Mrs. Sears were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger who were spending a week at Santa Barbara. The Sears also entertained guests from other cities while at the resort. The vacationists arrived home last Tuesday.

TWIN SONS ARRIVE

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Driscoll, 2230 Gramery, on Friday, Sept. 9, at the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Michael George weighed 4 lbs. 14 ozs. and Dennis James tipped the scales at 3 lbs. 15 ozs. They have a brother, Patrick.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Boice of Pennsylvania, and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Driscoll, of New York.

(Herald Photo)

MADAME FASHION'S LATEST . . . are modeled by, left, Mrs. Robert Sleeth and Mrs. James C. Anderson at the luncheon and fashion show given by the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary at their meeting at the Hacienda Hotel last Tuesday. The new styles were provided by a local shop and Mrs. John Shidler (Rosemary DeCamp) served as commentator.

Hospital Auxiliary Looks at Newest Fashions for Fall

Fall's newest fashions, colors, lines and materials, highlighted the meeting of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary last Tuesday at noon at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Following the serving of a luncheon, Mrs. John Shidler as commentator, described the fashions modeled by Mrs. Lawrence Green, Mrs. Don Hyde, Mrs. W. I. Laughton and Mrs. Robert Sleeth, Jr. In the array were fashions for sportswear, "at-homes," casuals, street and cocktail gowns from such well known designers as Jonathan Logan, Alex Colman and Ivan Fredericks.

A business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Eugene L. Cook, at which a membership tea was planned. The affair will be held Sept. 27 from 2 until 5 p.m., at the La Venta Inn in Palos Verdes.

Party Honors Patricia

Patricia McVey, who was celebrating her fifth birthday on Saturday, Sept. 3, was the honoree at a delightful party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McVey at their home 920 Kornblum.

After the young guests had arrived they were taken to Redondo where they enjoyed a boat cruise. They returned to the McVey home where games were played and the birthday cake was served with other refreshments.

Helping Patricia celebrate were: Susan Claessas, Susan Slocum, Colleen O'Hara, Tamara Houston, Phyllis Tatum, Margo Melville, Nancy Heath and Patricia's sister, Karen.

SPEND VACATIONS AT MORRO BAY

Morro Bay attracted several Torrance residents for vacations during the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears took a cottage there on Aug. 26 and had as their guests for the first week end, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitsy, who came home on the Santa Barbara. The Sears also entertained guests from other cities while at the resort. The vacationists arrived home last Tuesday.

On the Labor Day week end Mr. and Mrs. Sears were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger who were spending a week at Santa Barbara. The Sears also entertained guests from other cities while at the resort. The vacationists arrived home last Tuesday.

TWIN SONS ARRIVE

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Driscoll, 2230 Gramery, on Friday, Sept. 9, at the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Michael George weighed 4 lbs. 14 ozs. and Dennis James tipped the scales at 3 lbs. 15 ozs. They have a brother, Patrick.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Boice of Pennsylvania, and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Driscoll, of New York.

Y-Wives Have Busy Program

Regular meetings of the Y-Wives group of the YWCA, will continue Tuesday, Sept. 20, with watercolor instructions given by Janet Shedd. Volleyball and ping pong facilities will also be available.

On the following Tuesday morning, Sept. 27, Y-Wives will participate in exercises and dance instructions, directed by Miss Anne Douglas. Two films on nutrition, will be viewed during the coffee hour. Child care will be provided.

The group has elected Mrs. Raymond Stewart as vice president, following the resignation of Mrs. Robert Slothower.

Y-Wives were among the hostesses entertaining new teachers and their wives at a tea Monday, at the YWCA. They were Mes. H. Sandstrom, Warren Randall, Carl Swanstrom, Robert Tan and Oliver Courtney.

BLAIR CAULKINS COMPLIMENTED

Blair Caulkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Caulkins, 21604 Halldale Ave., was honored at a birthday luncheon last Friday, Sept. 9, celebrating his sixth birthday. A clever cowboy theme was used for decorations and "cowboys" ornamented the birthday cake.

After the luncheon, several games were played. Bringing gifts and greetings to Blair were: his brother, Kreg, Roy Sueda, Timmy Stewart, Kerry and Doug Crawford, Denny, David and Holly Lockman, and Debra and Vince Agapito.

Special guests were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Oliver.

Ballroom Dancing To Be Featured

With the round of fall dances to begin soon, the YWCA is opening to all its membership a class in ballroom dancing every Thursday evening from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. at 2320 Carson. The first hour will be for instruction with the last half hour for dancing. Partners are not necessary. The class is under the instruction of Anne Douglas, who has been the teacher for the Y-Wives. Information on the course may be received by calling the YWCA.

Theatre Set Goes Western For Gala Alfresco Event

Approximately 100 guests enjoyed the western party given by the ACCENT: Theatre, of Torrance, on Saturday evening, Mrs. Dora Heinlein, 2208 Gramery, cowboy outfits with jeans and square dance dresses prevailed in the outdoor setting where barbecued chicken, hot biscuits, and apple pie were served.

The recreation room, sans garage, was decorated as a bunk house, with everything but the horse present. A goat had been seen rummaging in the area on the preceding night, when Connie Cole, staff photographer for the "Rose Tattoo" took pictures of various scenes from the forthcoming play to be given by the theater.

Talent of many of the members was displayed around the piano later in the evening, with Nadine Nichol, well known local singer, leading the entertainment. Dancing was also enjoyed.

A spirit of energy will now ensue when each member does his share to help make the "Rose tattoo" another success.

(Herald Photo)

AS A COMPLIMENT . . . to the teachers of the Torrance schools, the local YWCA entertained at a tea last Monday at the YWCA. The affair, attended by 200 persons, was to acquaint the teachers with the Y facilities. Shown at the tea table from the left, are Mrs. Maxine Jensen, Madrona teacher; Mrs. Allen Fyeatt, hostess; Mrs. Robert Kelsey, hostess, and Lester Jensen, El Nido principal.

Torrance Y Groups Greet New Teachers at a Tea

Torrance YWCA was hostess to the members of the Torrance Unified Teaching staff on Monday, Sept. 12, at 4 p.m., at 2320 Carson, when they served punch and cookies. This was the first effort of this kind to acquaint the local teachers with the facilities of the Y.

Over 200 were present to sign in and be greeted by the members of the branch committee and various groups in the Y. The membership committee made all the arrangements for the affair.

Among the committee women were Mes. Thomas Wastfall, chairman; M. Lavender, Pearl Pennartz, L. J. Notter, Margaret Masie, L. L. Enger, S. Jackson, K. A. Kelsey, A. L. Pyeatt, Clara Conner, Rufus Sandstrom, Otis Blackstone, Howard Fletcher; and the chairman of the Branch Committee, Mrs. A. E. Palmer.

The Y-teens under their director, Miss Marion Fa'ou, also acted as hostesses. Helping to serve punch were Barbara Balow, Bonnie Fletcher, Janet Sanders, Claudia Smith, Patricia Blakeney and Virginia Sandstrom.

MRS. RAY LINQUIST . . . Recent Bride

Ray Linquist and Bride Now Residing in Torrance Home

At home at 1911 Andree in Torrance are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Linquist who were married July 17 at the Western Avenue Baptist Church. Mrs. Linquist is the former Shirley Joan Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mitchell of 1417 W. 220th St., Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Linquist of Harbor City.

For her wedding the bride wore a waltz length gown of white lace and net and a white orchid corsage. Miss Pat Woodard served as maid of honor and Courtland Bennett of San Pedro was best man. Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the vow exchange.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors. The couple spent their honeymoon at Yosemite. Both Mr. and Mrs. Linquist were members of the Narbonne High School graduating class of 1954.

Mr. Linquist is attending Harbor Junior College and is employed at Douglas Aircraft. He is a member of the Naval Air Reserve.

Sisterhood Board Meets

Board members of Temple Menorah Sisterhood met recently at the home of Mrs. Hy Fontwit to discuss further their objectives for the year.

Included in the immediate plans are a theater party on Sept. 23 at the New Playhouse in Los Angeles. The play to be presented is "Two Kilometers Right." Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Stanley Weller.

Members are invited to attend the first of several sewing workshops to provide a wardrobe for a "Sweet Sue" doll at the home of Mrs. Mark Bennett, 321 Ave. E. Redondo Beach, Sept. 22 at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Milton Feinberg, religious school chairman, announced that old students should register on or before Sept. 17, and new students are registering today from 8-10 a.m. at 112 1/2 Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Information concerning Sisterhood activities may be secured from Mrs. Albert Kurz.

TRI-DELTA ALUMNAE BEGIN NEW YEAR

The fall program of the South Bay Alliance of Delta Delta Delta, got underway at a business meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Keith A. Crown in Manhattan Beach. Mrs. James Cole is president.

All Tri-Delta alumnae are invited to join the group and may call Mrs. Richard S. Gibson, membership chairman.

Officers currently serving with Mrs. Cole are Mes. Donald Kane, vice president; Ralph E. Jackson, secretary; Pauline Lindsay, treasurer and M. M. Musselman, past president. Mrs. Cecil O. Sharratt served as co-hostess.

RUMMAGE SALE TOMORROW

Torrance Woman's Club will stage its annual rummage sale tomorrow at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., from 10 a.m. throughout the day. Mrs. A. E. Palmer is chairman of the affair and is being assisted by Mrs. R. Bingham.

All club members having rummage to contribute, are asked to bring it to the clubhouse today.

BETSY ROSS

Betsy Ross Club will meet at the home of Mary Blair, 1308 Cota Ave. on Thursday, Sept. 20 at 10 a.m. Ida May Christian will be co-hostess. It will be a pot luck luncheon with no desserts and members are asked to bring their own service.

McDonald-Wilson Wedding Rites Are Read on Sept. 2

Miss Barbara Dee McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Sarah H. McDonald, 22402 S. Main St., Torrance, became the bride of Robert Dale Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wilson, of Mint Canyon, Liemert Park on Sept. 2 at an afternoon ceremony at the First Christ's Church in Redondo Beach. The Rev. C. Mills officiated at the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of appliqued white lace on tulle. The skirt was detailed with a flared gown and a scooped neckline. The bride carried a lacy bouquet of stephanotis encircling an orchid. Mrs. John A. McDonald wearing pale green taffeta and carrying yellow roses was the matron of honor. James Lyster served as best man. Miss Alice Stuckey at the organ played the nuptial music.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McDonald. The young couple then spent a honeymoon at Santa Barbara and Carmel and are now at home in Liemert Park.